Treasurer's report given by Denise Jackson. Linda moved to accept report, Cindy seconds. Motion carries.

Old Business:

Christmas Lighting--

Reported by Linda that Burnie will be Santa again this year. Jerry Clark from the fire department called and reports that the Fire Dept will deliver Santa on the fire truck. The library will provide the hot chocolate, and giveaways for the children. The library will also be adding an Angel Tree this year. Rich Miller has taken care of the prizes and will be delivering them to the library on Tuesday 11-20-12. Jessi will grab cups, buckets for prize entries, and napkins from the City Shed and deliver them to the library. Denise will cut up the entry forms. Attempts were made to locate the Santa suit. Jessi will call the city office in the morning after Jeri Senger has a chance to check the office storage for the Santa suit.

New Business:

Community Grease Board--Denise reports for Sheila that it is possible there will be a stop sign being placed that will affect our grease board placement. The detour is set to begin Dec 3rd. The grease board announcements are currently being routed through Denise at CTC.

Santa's mailbox is being donated by Megan Duskie and Roy Winkel. It will be placed in the city square during the next week for children to leave their letters addressed to Santa Claus. Discussion followed regarding what to do with the letters received. It was decided to discuss it with Megan and see what her original intentions were and to offer help from anyone present at this meeting answering letters, et... if needed.

Chili Cook Off T-Shirts-- Denise reports that there are some T-shirts leftover from the Cook Off. Discussion follows regarding what we should be done with them. Linda moved to save them for next year's event, Cindy seconds. Motion carries.

Minutes by Sheila Paxson, Secretary

March 19, 2012

The Glen Elder Community Club met March 19, 2012 at Glen Elder Haven meeting room @ 5:30. Present was Jessie Cunningham, Denise Jackson, Linda Riley, Bev Porter, Sandy McBlair, Kevin Noller, Dot Johnson, Cindy Clausen, Karen Brinker, and Sheila Paxson. Jessie Cunningham, president, called the meeting to order. Minutes from the February meeting were read and corrected. Linda moved to approved minutes as corrected and Sandy seconded. Motion carried. Denise Jackson gave the Treasurer's report. The checking account balance is $3,922.06. She presented a recap of last month's activities. Linda moved to accept treasurer's report.

Old Business: Memberships dues keep coming in. There are 58 current memberships.

The file cabinet purchased from the library is at the Glen Haven Community room. It is ready for storage of Community Club documents from prior years and present year items.

New Business: Easter Egg Hunt will be held April 7th. Easter Egg Committee includes: Jessi Cunningham, chair, Mary Kay Wacaser, Dot Johnston, Barry & Darcel McPeak, Mike & Linda McGuire, Vic Stuart, Tina Singer, Linda McGuire, Glenda Shoemaker, and Janet Cunningham. Youth Volunteer are Bowe Behymer, Katy Winkel, McKenzie McPeak, Trevor & Tristen Winkel, Shelby & Daniel Herndon, and Drew Cunningham as the "Easter Bunny" again. Jessie had recruited help from local kids and sorted eggs. Crystal Cunningham will help deliver bags of 50 eggs to the businesses. Jessie said they had around 1700 eggs so she did not order any prefilled ones. Eggs will be collected at the Cunningham office.

Discussion was held on when to start hiding the eggs. It was decided to start at 12:30 and split the park into three areas. The Preschool and under group will be between Wayne's and the Senior Center; and the other three age groups would be Kindergarten & 1st Grade/ 2nd & 3rd grades/ and 4th & 5th grades in the park. Start time will be 2:00. Discussion was held on whether to have a staggered start time so parents who have children in more than one age group could watch each group. Bev Porter offered to make flyers to send to the Glen Elder and Cawker City schools. The Easter Egg Hunt will be advertised on the Community Calendar with KDNS.

Scholarship Committee of Linda Riley, Chair; Shari McKinnie; Adam & Jody Vowinckel; Barry & Darcel McPeak; Jim & Jan Slate; and Denise Jackson will meet around April 5th. Scholarship applications are due March 31st.

Discussion was held on whether to donate money to the City of GE for playground equipment in the park. Bev moved to pledge $1,000 to match funds to help purchase play equipment to the City. She also urged the Playground committee to get in touch with non-profit foundations that offer matching grants for projects such as this.

Bev Porter also checked on the rules concerning Bingo as it was a suggestion for Fun Day or another time. As long as money is not charged for an entrance fee or card fee and prizes are donated, the club would not need a license. She also wanted to know if anymore had asked Wayne about putting up a tent north of his building during Fun Day. Other suggestions for Fun Day was to see if the library would offer children events in the library during the day, a Kiddie Parade Only, and what to do about the Parade Marshall if there was no parade. Sandy McBlair mentioned that the parade draws the crowd in for the Fun Day events.

Jessie had to leave for another meeting so Denise Jackson served as acting president for the rest of the meeting.

Linda Riley asked for suggestions on what languages to put on the sides of the "Peace Pole" for Kent Anderson who was unable to attend the meeting. The Solomon Valley Alliance is helping toward the costs of it. Suggested languages included English, Sign Language, German, Spanish, Dutch, and an Indian dialect. There will be a dedication service sometime during Fun Day.

Denise thanked those who attended the meeting as it was nice to see a good turnout.

The next meeting will be held April 16, 2012 at Glen Haven @ 5:30.

Minutes by Sheila Paxson, Secretary

February 20, 2012

The Glen Elder Community Club met February 20, 2012 at Glen Elder Haven meeting room @ 5:30. Present was Denise Jackson, Linda Riley, Bev Porter and Sheila Paxson. Denise Jackson, acting president, called the meeting to order. Minutes from the January meeting were read and corrected to read: "Scoring for the scholarship was changed and voted on at the last meeting." Also, when the Boy Scout representative came to pick up the donation for the Boys Scout, she requested that the amount be only $20 instead of the $50 voted on at last month's meeting. Linda moved to approved minutes as corrected and Denise seconded. Motion carried.

Denise Jackson gave the Treasurer's report. The checking account balance is $3,910.27. She presented a recap of last month's activities. Sheila moved to accept treasurer's report and Linda seconded. Motion carried.

Old Business: The American Legion moved into a different building and had it remodeled. On January 28th, a ribbon cutting was sponsored by the GE Community club followed by an open house sponsored by the American Legion. A nice crowd turned out to view the newly remodeled building.

New Business: Easter Egg Hunt will be held April 7th. Easter Egg Committee includes: Jessi Cunningham, chair, Mary Kay Wacaser, Dot Johnston, Barry & Darcel McPeak, Mike & Linda McGuire, Vic's, Senger Construction. Youth Volunteer possibilities are Katy Winkel and McKenzie McPeak. Drew Cunningham would like to be the "Easter Bunny" again. Linda will contact Cindy Clause at the GE School to see if the students would be interested in matching up the used Easter egg halves so they can be given out to businesses to fill. It was decided to let Jessi order prefilled eggs like in the past.

A donation request was received from Lakeside After Prom. It was decided to give them a $50 donation.

Scholarship Committee is: Linda Riley, Chair; Shari McKinnie; Adam & Jody Vowinckel; Barry & Darcel McPeak; Jim & Jan Slate; and Denise Jackson

New suggestions for the Community Club events are:

- Sponsor a free swim every Wednesday night for kids 16 and under (or several times during the summer)
- Adult events like Texas Hold-em Tournaments or Bingo
- Add a Mexican Appetizer class to Chili Cook-off

Glen Elder Fun Day will be held July 21st. Suggestions for it was to ask the Senior Center and/or Library to open up for the afternoon so there would be a place to cool off in the heat; having a scavenger hunt, possibly putting up a tent in area north of Wayne's, having popcorn, and bingo. Bev Porter will look into seeing whether a license is required or not for bingo.

Glen Elder library had a file cabinet they would like to get rid of and wondered if the Community club would be interested in it. It was decided to offer the GE Library a $25 membership and $25 in cash for it.

The next meeting will be held March 19, 2012 at Glen Haven @ 5:30.
Minutes by Sheila Paxson, Secretary

January 16, 2012

The Glen Elder Community Club met January 16, 2012 at Glen Elder Haven meeting room @ 5:30. Present was Jessie Cunningham, Denise Jackson, Linda Riley, Dot Johnson and Sheila Paxson. President Jessie Cunningham called the meeting to order. Minutes from the December meeting were read and meeting date for January was corrected from Jan 17 to Jan 16. Denise moved to approved minutes as corrected and Linda seconded. Motion carried. Denise Jackson gave the Treasurer's report. The checking account balance is $3,123.33. She presented a recap of last years' revenues and expenses and showed a net income of $1,074.40. Linda moved to accept treasurer's report and Sheila seconded. Motion carried.

A new Boy Scout Troop is being formed for the Glen Elder, Cawker, and Downs towns. Cassi Walsh asked for a donation with start-up costs. Discussion was held on what costs the Scouts might have for the start-up such as Scout manuals and national dues. Linda moved to donate $50 to the Boys Scouts and was seconded by Denise. Motion carried.

After discussing ways on how to inform the community and others of what the Community Club does, it was suggested to have a photographer at the events. Jessie Cunningham spoke to Tracy Anderes about taking pictures at Community Club events. She said she would if she was in town that day. It was also suggested that Tracy and Alice Thompson could work together on the GE Community Club Facebook page. Discussion was also held on how to make sure items were sent to Greg German to have them put on the Glen Elder Website.

Linda Riley presented a copy of the Glen Elder Community Club Scholarship requirements and instructions. Several items discussed for change was trying to get the student more involved in the Glen Elder Community Club activities during their school years. It would be preferred if the recipient could be present the day of Fun Day to receive the scholarship but if unable to be there that day, to help with advance work for Fun Day. Another change suggested was hand delivering the application to Linda Riley or Cunningham Telephone office due to the fact last year, one of the students mailed their application and it was not received. Another suggestion was to send the application by certified mail. Scoring for the scholarship was changed some also. Final changes will be voted on at the February meeting. Discussion was also held on increasing the amount from $250 to $300 for two recipients. Denise moved to change amount from $250 to $300 was seconded and motion carried.

The next meeting will be held February 20, 2012 at Glen Haven @ 5:30.

Membership letters were then readied for mailing this week.
